

Workplace Communication (BELA 0012)
Course Objective:

1. Develop an understanding of the distinction between general and business communication, and explore how effective communication strategies differ in various professional contexts.
2. Identify and address barriers to communication, and acquire practical tools and techniques to overcome challenges in business communication.
3. Learn to apply the "You" perspective and optimistic discourse in business settings to enhance clarity, foster positive interactions, and improve overall communication effectiveness.
4. Master key forms of business correspondence, including the crafting of letters, notices, agendas, minutes, and professional emails, with a focus on clarity, conciseness, and professionalism.
5. Enhance critical reading and speaking skills by analyzing business news, articles, and reports, while also practicing negotiation, persuasion, and effective presentation techniques in various professional settings.

CREDIT –2

SEMESTER IV

L-T-P-2-0-0

| Module | Content                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Teaching Hours |
|--------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| I      | The Art of Communication <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. General Vs Business Communication</li> <li>2. Barriers to Communication, and ways to overcome</li> <li>3. Effective Communication: ‘You’ perspective and ‘Optimistic’ discourse</li> </ol> Business Correspondence <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Letters</li> <li>2. Notice, Agenda, and Minutes</li> <li>3. Emails</li> </ol> Reading and Speaking <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Decoding Business News and Articles</li> <li>2. Negotiation and Persuasion Techniques</li> </ol> Vocabulary <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Concerning e-mails and Meetings</li> </ol> | 14             |
| II     | The Art of Writing <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. CV / Resume and Job Application cum Cover Letters</li> </ol> Reading and Speaking <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Reading and Interpreting Reports</li> <li>2. Group and Individual Presentations</li> <li>3. Presenting Business Proposals</li> </ol> Vocabulary <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Highlights in a CV/Resume</li> <li>2. Interviews’ Terminology</li> </ol>                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 14             |

Course Outcomes:

After completing this course:

1. Students will be able to differentiate between general and business communication and apply the appropriate communication strategies for diverse business scenarios, ensuring clear and professional interactions.
2. Students will develop the ability to recognize and overcome communication barriers, employing effective strategies to facilitate smooth and efficient communication in both individual and group settings.
3. Students will demonstrate proficiency in crafting various business correspondence (letters, notices, agendas, minutes, and emails), tailoring their writing to suit specific business needs while maintaining clarity and professionalism.
4. Students will enhance their ability to read and analyze business-related texts (news, articles, reports) and apply negotiation, persuasion, and presentation techniques to effectively communicate and influence stakeholders in business contexts.
5. Students will be able to create a compelling CV/resume and job application documents, using precise vocabulary and industry-specific terminology, and practice presenting themselves confidently in interviews and business proposals.